

02:48:05 Elisabeth Brierley: First Thing Music: <https://firstthingmusic.co.uk/>

02:56:44 Jonathan Startup: Here is the report from the Guardian I mentioned this morning quoting the philistine headteacher. 2 years ago but don't suppose much has changed... <https://www.theguardian.com/education/2019/apr/02/school-music-cuts-inequality-demoralised-teachers>

03:04:01 Lucinda Geoghegan: Singing together was my favourite time of the week as a child!

03:05:26 Janet Wheeler: It needs to make an imaginative connection

03:09:19 Janet Wheeler: Perhaps abcd should support some new Singing together resources!!! I'd be keen to get involved!

03:09:58 Ally Daubney: The DfE's ambition for the MMC: to create a "sequenced and structured template curriculum".

03:14:52 Elisabeth Brierley: I completely agree with Ally's point about there already being a plethora of resources for teachers; it's how we share, pool and grow those resources and ensure that teachers are hearing about them

03:15:45 Jonathan Startup: Future networking event!

03:17:23 Janet Wheeler: Can we see you slides after the event Ally? I would like to look more closely at all you had on them?

03:18:07 Ally Daubney: Yes I'll share them all with Elisabeth

03:18:12 Janet Wheeler: Many thanks

03:20:10 Ally Daubney: Thanks for the invite

03:20:31 juliamayall: thank you - a really interesting session

03:20:39 Janet Wheeler: Thank you all - great discussion.

03:20:45 Ian Crawford: Many thanks to everyone - lots to think about.

03:20:46 Susan Griffin: Thank you

03:20:47 Chao Cox: Thank you.

03:20:51 Lucinda Geoghegan: Thank you for the invitation! And thank you to everyone who contributed

03:20:55 Andrew Ella: Thank you!

03:21:13 Richard Jeffries: Thanks for inviting me to this!

03:21:15 Andrew Kirk: Thank you - really interesting!