Lyric Sheet

You've heard of triceratops, T-rex and stegosaurus,
Maybe even micropachycephalosaurus.
But no one has heard of me, the littlest dinosaur of all.
I'm just a microraptor, and I'm only one foot tall.

I'm a teeny tiny dinosaur,
With a squeak, and not much roar,
Spielberg's got no time for me,
Cos he needs a hugeasaur.
If I hadn't gone extinct
I'd be a super household pet,
You'd walk me on a lead to school
And take me to the vet.

We'd go out for walkies and play fetch and chasing squirrels,
I'd never scare the neighbour's cat or widdle on a tree.
And no one needs to run away when it's time for tea.
I only eat the grubs: insectarian, that's me.

I'm a teeny tiny dinosaur,
With a squeak, and not much roar,
Picture books don't picture me,
They don't want a teenysaur.

I am nowhere on the scary scale,
Just four wings and a feather tail,
A big heart and not much more,
I'm a tiny dinosaur.
